

Secretary

Candidate: Brandon Chatani, MD, FAAP

Primary City of Practice: Orlando, Florida

Statement of Interest/Bio:

Dr. Brandon Chatani graduated from Temple Medical School, then relocated to Miami to complete his Pediatric Residency and a Fellowship in Pediatric Infectious Diseases at Holtz Children’s Hospital. He currently practices in Orlando, FL, as a Pediatric Infectious Disease consultant for AdventHealth for Children.

Dr. Chatani exhibits a deep passion for pediatric care, infectious diseases, and community advocacy, as demonstrated by his extensive involvement and dedication to various committees, programs, and initiatives over the years. From actively participating in the Antimicrobial Stewardship Program and the Pediatric Liver Transplant Selection Committee to assuming leadership as Chair of the Florida Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics Immunization Committee, his dedication to optimizing patient care and advancing healthcare policies has remained unwavering.

His engagement in community organizations, advisory councils, and projects focusing on LGBTQ+ care underscores his belief in promoting health equity, advocating for marginalized populations, and fostering inclusivity within healthcare. Through diverse leadership roles and collaborative ventures, Dr. Chatani has honed his skills in driving positive change, enhancing patient outcomes, and advocating for underrepresented communities.

As a candidate for the position of Secretary for the 2024-2026 FCAAP Board of Directors, he brings a wealth of experiences, statewide connections, leadership skills, and a genuine passion for making a difference in the healthcare community that serves the children of Florida. Having been a part of the FCAAP since 2013, his journey with the organization has been enriching and transformative. Through his continued involvement, Dr. Chatani has witnessed firsthand the evolution of the FCAAP, which has allowed him to gain an exceptional understanding of its operations, values, and vision. This profound growth over the years has equipped him to navigate the complexities of the organization effectively and contribute meaningfully to its continued success. Dr. Chatani is thrilled at the prospect of utilizing his expertise, advocacy experience, and collaborative spirit to bolster the mission of the FCAAP and enhance the welfare of children and families in the state of Florida.
